The four areas identified by the Club under its duty of care are:

1. The facility – this has been worked with local, health and licensing authorities to ensure the highest levels of delivery for the canteen and bar operational function. The Club facility will be regularly assessed to ensure it fully meets the needs and requirements of its members. All upgrades and improvements will be made fully compliant with and approved by the relevant authorities and regulators.

2. Driving under the Influence – ensuring responsible and diligent ways and means to allow members to happily enjoy all the services of the club without risking their own or others safety through excessive alcohol consumption.
3. Local Community – maintaining and fostering a responsible Club community culture. The Club is conscious it is seen as a true community player in Nedlands and adjacent precincts and wants its members to recognise this participation. The Club will work with other businesses and its neighbouring and associated clubs to ensure social and community harmony.
4. Services – to provide food, snacks and refreshments for all members to the best standards required. The Club maintains compliance with all aspects of associated with the food regulation in Western Australia - Department of Health.

The Club maintains a full-time permanent Administration Manager who is responsible for training all staff members. The Club provides all resources reasonably required to allow staff to undertake any and all required training.
